FEDERAL EMPLOYMENT LAW

SB&R attorneys have particular expertise in federal employment matters. We have successfully represented employees in nearly every federal agency. We have the knowledge and experience to provide our clients with expert legal advice and quality representation, regardless of the forum.

EMPLOYMENT LAW

SB&R attorneys provide legal services for both employers and employees in the private sector. Areas of representation include severance agreements, discrimination, and wrongful discharge claims.

GSA SCHEDULE WORK

When a federal agency needs outside assistance, SB&R can be brought in under the GSA schedule. We are available to provide a full spectrum of personnel services, including training for supervisors and human resource professionals, as well as legal representation in personnel and EEO cases.

NATIONAL SECURITY PRACTICE

SB&R attorneys are experienced in handling matters related to national security and other sensitive issues, including representation in national security related investigations, commissions, and congressional proceedings. SB&R attorneys are also knowledgeable about the security clearance process and standards. Attorneys at SB&R hold secret and top secret clearances, and have been eligible for SCI access in appropriate cases.

GOVERNMENTAL REPRESENTATION

Congressional legislation and federal regulations directly impact every business and association in the nation. SB&R can provide access to key Members of Congress and their staffs, and to appropriate federal agency officials to advance the views of our clients. We ensure that our clients' concerns are considered fairly and favorably.

For over 20 years, we have successfully shaped federal legislation and regulations on behalf of our clients.
